 - b. By way of ancillary orders pursuant to section 87(5) or section 87A(5) of the Native Title Act, recognises for all time that the Adnyamathanha have, and may continue to exercise, traditional rights and interests, being (without native title) the right to carry out the activities set out in paragraph 7 excluding that set out in subparagraph (m).
3. In relation to Area 2 of the Overlap Area they will pursue a consent determination which

4. Each party may from time to time identify to the other party areas which contain sites of significance to that party for the purposes of their better protection and preservation. In the event that any third party wishes to conduct any activity within that area then the party which has native title rights and interests in that area will notify the other claim group and consult with that claim group as to how to better protect that area.
